Northwest Vendor Corner

Wildtime Foods
Eugene, OR

Wildtime Foods was founded in 1981 when they started delivering their handmade Grizzlies Granolas around Eugene by bicycle. They've since replaced the bicycle but they still make their mixes by hand and in small batches so they can control quality and assure their customers satisfaction. They believe that providing exceptional customer service is second only to providing exceptional products.

As an artisan food manufacturer, Wildtime Foods makes unique, quality gourmet granolas, trail mixes and raw grain cereals with a focus on producing WHOLE foods with exceptional taste and quality. You won't find genetically modified ingredients (GMOs), preservatives, processed sugars or grains, added salt, Trans fats, animal products, artificial color, or hydrogenated oils in the foods they make. What you will find are locally or regionally grown organic and natural ingredients, whenever possible, and a commitment to delivering a fresh, healthy, delicious product each and every time. They choose their raw materials very carefully and are personally familiar with many of the farmers who grow the grains, nuts, and fruits that go into their mixes.
