Huckleberry's Expert's Corner

Drew Smith
Spokane Wine Co.

For seven years now as Huckleberry's Wine Steward, Drew Smith has been engaging people with his love and appreciation of fine wines and beers.

Through his popular wine and beer tasting events in the Bistro, his tasting notes and descriptions, his own love of wine, and his sense of humor, Drew brings to life what the vintners and brewers most want to convey to our customers.

That commitment to our customers also finds Drew visiting many of the wineries and vineyards in the Northwest, talking with winemakers and staff, tasting and reading, furthering his own knowledge. Washington State is second in the U.S. only to California in total wine production, with more new wineries opening each year, making "Local" a huge part of his expertise.

What does Drew think people should also know about him? He is crazy about animals, loves to cook and especially loves to sing. Catch him this Thursday when he will perform in another Chocolate, Wines and Show tunes event.
